After our retreat this weekend, I feel...
1. Encouraged that I can put together a workable vision plan.	Deanna Stringer
2. Empowered for envisioning.	Michael Mattocks
3. This was a real eye opener.	Lance Smith
4. Like personally and in our church, I need to be more intentional about voicing and listening to the visions of others.	Sara Brown
5. Challenges to know more details of God's vision for me.	Carma Grimes
6. Very challenged.	Chaplain Richard Jackman
7. I will be more intentional about my vision and ministry.	Judy Lenardson
8. I have discovered areas of breakdown in my personal life and ministry.	Pastor Tommy Grimes
9. Obligated to be involved by the help of the Holy Spirit to help build the church of God's Dreams.	Jack Brown
10. Challenged. I have been on this journey and have done some of those things, but seem to not quite get there.	Jake Shue
11. I need to re-align my vision to where God wants me.	De Anne Reiley
I learned the most about....
1. My need for a clearer personal vision and family vision.	Richard Jackman
2. How to connect vision and ministry to the power source.	Judy Lenardson
3. Learning to involve others more and expect results in their life.	Pastor Tommy Grimes
4. What precedes vision.	Jake Shue
5. What it takes to pierce the future. It was neat the example of bow and arrow.	De Anne Reiley
The portion of this retreat having the greatest impact on me personally was....
1. Becoming a dangerous church – person.	Michael Mattocks
2. Boundaries/non-negotiables.	James Earls
3. The challenges and importance of non-negotiables.	Judy Lenardson
4. The description of filling glasses continually, arriving to empty out in worship.	Pastor Tommy Grimes
5. The evidence of mis-alignment.	Jack Brown
6. If God had his way in my life, what would it look like?	Jake Shue
My significant "ah ha" from this retreat was...
1. This was affirming today as God has been voicing in my heart to get started putting something on paper and I've been putting it off.	Deanna Stringer
2. I realized that I have put focus on personal growth/vision and failed to help build that of others, even family.	Sara Brown
This retreat was different from other retreats like this for me in that...
1. There was passion in the message, not just a "how to."	Deanna Stringer
2. I felt more drawn in by the eclectic delivery.	Sara Brown
3. I can't put it into words at this time, except I was here for a special reason.	James Earls
4. Todd used actual illustrations and object lessons to illustrate his points.	Carma Grimes
5. Very, very practical. It will definitely result in change for me and the ministry I am involved in	Chaplain Richard Jackman
6. It isn't a program, but a challenge to get serious, passionate and get moving in an intentional way.	Judy Lenardson
7. Very practical and truthful – in a way to help me see myself.	Pastor Tommy Grimes
8. It hits the heart (bullseye) more, is not just a bunch of do's and don'ts; real-ness and authenticity, not just polished production.	Jake Shue
9. Very focused, to the point, excellent action points.	Don Fletcher
10. It left me especially challenged.	Stanley Reiley
