Fri – Sat, October 19-20, 2007

VENUE: Country Acres Baptist Church

70 men in attendance throughout the weekend

After this conference, I feel...
1. Challenged and encouraged to invest my life in others in specific, personal ways.	Pastor Kelly Randolph
2. Very glad I took time from my family to learn something for my family.	Barry Dick
3. Energized to reach out to my lost friends, family and busy men in our church.	Greg Adrian
4. A burden to start immediately on being in the Word and in prayer to be able to hear his heart speaking to me more clearly.	Steve Brown
5. Challenged to rethink how I prioritize my life.	David Elliott, Jr.
6. That this was affirmation of the direction our men’s ministry is now headed.	Mark Borofsky
7. That I am spiritually lazy and need to step up and be a leader.	Agie Soria
8. Much better about the man going home to his family.	Jason Rariden
9. God calling me to slow down, making myself available to Him.	Russell Dunn
10. Motivated to make a difference in someone’s life.	Ryan Dunn
11. Changed and empowered in using my life to honor God and not me.	Don Weakley
12. I can change and follow God’s leading. What a powerful program to enlighten my life.	David Stroh
13. Restored.	Geno Sylvester
14. That I need to rearrange my priority. To put the Lord first, that I need to strive to follow his will.	Isaiah Sylvester
I learned the most today about...
1. Investing my life in people, and using my life to build people.	Pastor Kelly Randolph
2. What I have not done to serve as an effective leader for Christ.	Greg Adrian
3. My lack of allowing God’s leading – how it has kept me from being a spiritual leader in my family.	Steve Brown
4. Being a man of God, letting go and embracing his control and guidance in my life.	John Weakley
5. What true repentance means.	David Elliott, Jr.
6. Myself, and why I sometimes feel like I am unblessable.	Jake Yoder
7. Fighting Satan like a man.	Mark Borofsky
8. What it means to be a Tile Mover.	Larry Emley
9. Giving up “stuff” and re-surrendering everything to God.	Don Weakley
10. Admitting my secret struggle.	John David Browning
11. “Pride”, and the enemy in my life.	David Stroh
12. Serving others, not self.	Geno Sylvester
The portion of the day having the greatest impact on me was...
1. Ken’s Riedl’s testimony.	Pastor Kelly Randolph
2. God accepting me although I never felt I received it from my dad.	Barry Dick
3. The importance of reaching out – whatever the cost – for others to know Christ.	Greg Adrian
4. Being “strongly supported” by God.	John Weakley
5. Ken Riedl’s testimony.	David Elliott, Jr.
6. The morning session on forgiving our fathers.	Jake Yoder
7. Ken’ Riedl’s testimony.	Mark Borofsky
8. Ken Riedl’s testimony.	Agie Soria
9. Making my life’s goal to help my wife become the woman of God she desires to be.	Russell Dunn
10. I need to have a priority and passion for people.	Ryan Dunn
11. Ken Riedl’s testimony.	Don Weakley
12. Ken Riedl’s testimony.	John David Browning
13. Piercing the future.	Geno Sylvester
14. Realizing that I have not had a vision for my life, let alone for my family.	Kevin Coon
15. “Fighting like a Godly Man for God’s greatest priority – PEOPLE.”	Isaiah Sylvester
My significant “ah ha” was...
1. How God is looking for men to strongly support.	Pastor Kelly Randolph
2. Like my dad, I’ve never voiced my “acceptance” of my children to them.	Barry Dick
3. We are in significant danger living outside of God’s will for our lives.	Greg Adrian

4. Learning to pass on to my children God's blessing of recognizing their maturing and becoming a man.	Steve Brown
5. Our motion/calendar become our vision.	David Elliott, Jr.
6. Resolving conflicts.	Mark Borofsky
7. The idea that I need to envision a family, a man, a church that God can bless.	Matthew Mercer
8. Use my faith to help others come to God.	Austin Rariden
9. My schedule limits God's ability to use me for his work.	Russell Dunn
10. Find something I love to do and use it to lift up others and honor God and his Son.	Don Weakley
11. No vision. I have been living outside of the Lord's blessings. God can use me.	Kevin Coon
12. II Chronicles 16:9 – shred your heart for new and lost people.	Isaiah Sylvester

This conference was different from other conferences for me in that...

1. It was very practical and encouraging.	Pastor Kelly Randolph
2. Todd actually seemed excited and passionate about his presentation.	Barry Dick
3. The application was "crystal clear."	Greg Adrian
4. I received real tools that God has given us to use for his purposes.	Steve Brown
5. It encouraged seeking God's vision for myself and my family.	John Weakley
6. It didn't beat me up as a poor father, husband and friend.	Mark Borofsky
7. It seemed to be speaking directly to me.	Larry Emley
8. I got more out of it.	Austin Rariden
9. We had discussion on areas of application.	Russell Dunn
10. I felt connected.	Don Weakley
11. It personalized men's issues.	John David Browning
12. It was definitely life-changing and eye opening.	David Stroh
