“Fight Like a Man”

Eagle Heights Baptist Church, Pastor Tommy Turner
Harrison, AR
May 2006

This conference was different from other conferences for me in that:

1. “It was not preachy, but heart-to-heart.” – Pastor Tommy Turner
2. “It was relevant to what I need at this point in my life.” Todd Magness,
3. “I was taught ‘how’ and not just ‘what’.” – Robert Kuns
4. “I could relate to events and stories from my own background.” – Shane Simmons
5. “I felt like I received and learned practical, real applications.” – Larry Ross Cantrell
6. “It was a men only retreat. When I attend events with my wife I tend to be hindered in my thoughts and actions. It was refreshing to be unhindered!” – Rick Reed

Significant Ah-ha from the day:

1. “I must pull myself out of my inactivity. I so desire to be the spiritual leader for my family and to live my life for God. The sheer magnitude of what that means for my life and how to start living in that matter has driven me to a point of inaction. I am not indifferent but paralyzed by a lack of vision and direction for my life and my families. – Rick Reed
2. “Seeing how all men face the temptation of sex and pornography and ways we can combat that before it becomes destructive.” – John Richardson, Eagle Heights Baptist Church, Harrison, AR.
3. “How we can live secret lives and keep them hidden.” – Drew Bowlan
4. “Other men have won major battles in their lives and are not ashamed to admit they failed.” – Mac Troutt

The portion of the day having the greatest impact on me personally was:

1. “That God has been dealing with my heart about His purpose/passion in my life more so in the last two weeks and He wouldn’t ask me to get involved if He wasn’t going to see it through and bless it.” – Kevin Housley
2. “Fighting for His passion; seeking opportunities in everyday life to make a difference in others.” John Richardson
3. “Ken Reidl’s testimony over the phone. That made it real. What an impact!” – Doug Chaffin
4. “Talking about priorities – what I do and what I should do.” – Greg Gibson
5. “The trap for all men. We must fight for Godly impact in our lives.” – Harry Stamper

After our time today, I feel...

1. “I have the tools to begin to build a vision for my family. I came to this conference expecting something – I didn’t know what. I just felt compelled to attend. I am a father of two boys, two-and-a-half years old, that my wife and I adopted. Since the day they arrived, I have been searching for the direction to raise Godly children. Session One on fighting for His purpose has given me the direction and tools to build that vision for my family. Thank you. Your words have given me a sense of calm to my soul that it is possible to raise my family for God’s will. – Rick Reed
2. “God’s impressing on me to step out and by faith, not of myself, allow him to use me to better impact the lives of others for His glory.” – Kevin Housley
3. “More passionate about knowing the Lord. I have a clearer picture of what a ‘man’ is.” – Shane Simmons
4. “A passion to become a better man; for God, for my wife, for my future children.” – Larry Ross Cantrell

I learned the most today about...

1. “Creating a vision for my life and my family.” – Todd Magness
2. “Being reminded to slow down and to look for/seize opportunities!” – Pastor Jack McCarthy
3. “The importance of having a vision.” – Larry Ross Cantrell, First Baptist Church, Mountain Hope, AR.
4. “Importance of being intentional in life – take time to think it through.” – Harry Stamper
5. “Turning my priorities away from me and earthly concerns and refocusing them on God’s spiritual priorities.” Rick Reed
