

OVERVIEW OF RESPONSES

“Fight Like a Man” Men’s Retreat

First Church of God, Mt. Sterling KY

Pastor Jeff Perkins, jakeperk@aol.com

April 27-28, 2007

After this conference, I feel...
1. Challenged to be more intentional and proactive about being a Godly man.	Senior Pastor, Jeff Perkins
2. A mandate to re-evaluate my picture of me to look at me from God's perspective.	Worship Pastor, Kevin Willis
3. Closer to God and encouraged. Motivated to dig deeper into His Word and look for more opportunities to invest in the life of others.	Bill Calvert
4. It put more focus on my life, on how my actions impact others. Be a man God can use to reach others.	Tom Hayes
5. Better prepared to help others learn about God.	Lacy Castle
6. Like I have a new beginning.	.J.T. Spence
1. Refreshed, renewed, and the fire of God rekindled in my soul to be a better man, a better Christian for my God, my wife, others and myself.	Jeff Stamper
7. That there is a light at the end of the tunnel. There is now some direction. My confidence in this new Christian walk has increased.	Mike Bess
8. Invigorated and encouraged.	Youth Pastor Brett Talley
9. That I am on my way, another step toward being a better husband, father and co-worker.	Brad Reed
10. Challenged to become more aware of the people around me.	Charlie McVey
11. Rejoiced! I want to renew my commitment to God and become an instrument for God.	Cecil Colliver
12. A need to rededicate my life to Christ.	Eric Stigall
13. Re-energized to do battle for the kingdom. I feel power to fight the temptations in my life.	Dwight Akers
14. Revived and stronger, with a spirit of renewal and excitement.	Chris Spoonamore
I learned the most today about...
2. Passing vision on to my children.	Pastor Jeff Perkins
3. My selfishness in my own area of ministry.	Pastor Kevin Willis
4. I may have to give up some of the things I love in order to have an effective ministry. Give up something I love for something I love more.	Tom Hayes
5. What it means to be a real man of God.	J.T. Spence
6. Having values and never swaying from them regardless of where I am or what I am doing.	Jeff Stamper
7. Myself and how I can impact others.	Don McNay
8. God has a plan for my life to continue to be a true and faithful friend for others.	Snookie Sanetznik
9. The fact that other guys are suffering through similar trials as me. This give me hope, especially since I have no real close guy friends.	Mike Bess
10. The need to serve others.	Pastor Brett Talley
11. Where my passion really is.	Brad Reed
12. That I need to draw closer to God and become more of a Godly man.	Cecil Colliver
13. How to fight for god's will to use me.	Eric Stigall
14. Not becoming de-sensitized to people's needs – keep a heart for people. I understand the necessity to set exact parameters on values for my family.	Dwight Akers
15. What it means to be a Tile Mover.	Joe Veeneman
16. Become a person to empower and see the potential in people.	Christ Spoonamore
The portion of the day having the greatest impact on me was...
1. The last session about being a Tile Mover.	Pastor Jeff Perkins
2. How I view people.	Pastor Kevin Willis
3. Ken Riedl's testimony	Lacy Castle
4. Ken Riedl's testimony	Don McNayHo
5. The idea of being a Tile Mover. I've always been the guy who was at the sideline. No more.	Mike Bess
6. Realizing by what others have said back to me just how I treat others.	Brad Reed
7. I need to spend more time with people and not be so task oriented.	Charlie McVey

8. Fighting Like a Man for God's Passion – reaching another person.	Cecil McVey
9. Ken Riedl's testimony.	Eric Stigall
10. Forming a family vision...I want to apply this to our lives.	Dwight Akers
11. Ken Riedl's testimony.	Joe Veeneman
My significant "ah ha" was...
1. A Godly man doesn't happen by accident, but by intentionality.	Pastor Jeff Perkins
2. Look from God's perspective, always check "alignment," I needed to write a mission statement.	Pastor Kevin Willis
3. It's not necessary to be sick in order to get better.	Bill Calvert
4. To keep my pride from ruling my life.	Lacy Castle
5. How important it is to get a vision for what God wants to do in my life. How subtle pride can be.	Charlie McVey
6. I have to hate my sin.	Cecil Colliver
7. Realizing my secret life and what I need to be aware of to disengage from that life.	Eric Stigall
8. I must be careful of Satan keeping us too busy that we miss the mark. We have to hate our sin enough to quit it.	Dwight Akers
9. You'll never understand that I'm all you need, until I am all you have."	Chris Spoonamore
This conference was different from other conferences for me in that...
1. Todd was much more transparent and vulnerable than most speakers.	Pastor Jeff Perkins
2. I felt the informal setting and more intimate climate very appropriate.	Bill Calvert
3. I thought the conference was great. Right on target. It helped me with new perspective.	Tom Hayes
4. God used you to stir my heart for Him. It felt more personal.	Jeff Stamper
5. I didn't realize how dangerous of a man I can be for the Lord.	Snookie Sanetznik
6. It is the first men's conference, first protestant retreat, and has made me easier around this new faith.	Mike Bess
7. It gave me the tools to draw closer to God – thanks so much and God bless.	Cecil Colliver
8. I feel this event is right on. Todd is the most powerful tool God has put before me. Loved it. Glad I came.	Eric Stigall
