

OVERVIEW OF RESPONSES
"The Call of a Tile Mover" Worship Retreat
 Tanner Street Church of God, Sikeston, MO
 Senior Pastor, John Neeley
 Friday - Saturday, September 12-13, 2009

After this retreat, I feel...
1. That I need to discover a direction for my life as a worker for God.
2. Very blessed and humbled that I could have this opportunity to grow closer to the God I serve and love.
3. More focused on where I should head and how to move more purposefully in that direction.
4. Empowered, like I want to discover my gifts.
5. Ready to worship the Lord through my life.
6. Like God was here in this meeting. I'm ready to experience worship better.
7. Uplifted and excited to be a part of this day.
8. Blessed and renewed with what God has opened my eyes to see.
9. I learned more about the anointing of ministry, and the vision in family and worship.
10. Extremely motivated to improve my walk with Christ, to set a vision for myself and my family.
11. I have spent more time in prayer about the specifics of my ministry.
I learned the most about...
1. The need to see ahead and have a vision, God-given, in regards to several areas of my life.
2. Working toward a goal or vision personally and as a church.
3. The vision God has for my life personally.
4. What God expects of me.
5. My place in the Body of Christ and how to invest myself more where God asks me to.
6. Organizing my life.
7. Spiritual gifts and how to use them.
8. How to more express myself while singing.
9. Spiritual gifts.
10. The need to see ahead and have a vision, God given, in regards to several areas of my life.
The portion of the retreat having the greatest impact on me was...
1. The story of Dick Weber and the Christmas Pageant, and Todd's change of vision and direction.
2. The bow and arrow diagram.
3. Getting non-negotiables established.
4. Discovering I had no real vision. This retreat made me take a personal inventory of myself. It helped me discover that I need to set new priorities for myself and my family.
5. 30 minutes alone developing a mission.
My significant "ah ha" was...
1. The idea of "holy discontent" and the importance of recognizing it.
2. The Lord strongly supports those whose hearts are in alignment with his. Is my heart in alignment with his? Always?
3. The idea of being aligned with God's purpose for me and not just "doing" in His name things that I consider "service" because I have always done them for church.
4. Todd mentioned using worship like a red carpet for the Holy Spirit, and using strategy for staying aligned.
5. "Whose vision is it I'm accomplishing?"
6. The non-negotiables. I just never thought of it that way.
7. Talking about the non-negotiables and boundaries with children and grandchildren.
8. Where do I want to go with God?
This retreat was different from others for me in that...
1. The content was deep and really gives you something to apply to your life. Relevant to the church in the 21 st century.
2. It touched the very inner being of my soul.

3. We had time to reflect on what was said.
4. It inspires me to do these things and not just go home with more information.
5. From the many I have attended, this is my first one that seemed a little more personal instead of just some silly acronym.
6. It applied more to my life.
7. I was able to relate to it all...
8. It was interesting and kept my attention.
9. Todd, a job well done. This was an awesome experience. I look forward to attending more of your retreats.
