

OVERVIEW OF RESPONSES
“Fight Like a Man” Men’s Retreat
 Sugar Grove UMC, Washington Courthouse, OH
 Senior Pastor, Roland Mitchell
 Friday - Saturday, March 5-6, 2010

After this retreat, I feel...
1. I have tools to make a difference in my life , my family and others I don’t even know yet.
2. Like I need to step away from temptation’s edge and run towards God.
3. I need to make a better life plan for my family of how to serve God better as a family.
4. I have had a fire lit in me to become and help others become the greatest and most powerful Christian they can possibly be.
5. My strength is good, but not great. I need priorities and to live through his vision for me.
6. Refreshed and focused.
I learned the most about...
1. What I’m not but what I want to be.
2. The urgency to reach out to others, to look for those opportunities and not let them pass by un-noticed.
3. Myself and how I should be as a man.
4. Unseen sinful tendencies and how they leave no room for God.
5. Getting your life in order.
6. How we need to use our lives to help others come to Jesus.
7. Not being comfortable where I’m at, but pushing further forward to do God’s will.
8. How I need to make God my priority.
The portion of the retreat having the greatest impact on me was...
1. Being a Tile Mover.
2. The power I have over my 10-year-old son and the need to be more active in his life.
3. The story about Ken Riedl.
4. Fighting for God’s purpose and not my father’s.
5. The testimony and phone call with Ken Riedl.
6. Looking at situations in a way to get to know someone, and to reach out to them in God’s name.
7. The passion others have for the Lord, and where I need to be.
My significant “ah ha” was...
1. If I were arrested for being a Christian today, would there be enough evidence to convict me?
2. I need to step it up in al areas of my life concerning the will of God.
3. “If I’m not the God of everything in your life, I’m not God at all.”
4. I thought it was amazing. Everything hit me 100% right where it needed to.
5. God sees more potential in me that what I believe.
6. That I was lost, but now am found.
This retreat was different from other retreats for me in that...
1. It really was a home run.
2. If I incorporated everything I learned from this retreat, it would be life-changing.
3. I related more because I am a visual person.
4. It was way more focused on the individuals.
5. It was very structured.
6. Todd had great timing in his message and in my life.
7. It was more personal.
8. God wants to use me if I will let him.
